

Session Outline and Discussion Question

“Why Am I Here?” (Part One)

Vince D’Acchioli -- Session 18

Session Outline:

“All men seek happiness. This is without exception. This is the motive of every action of every man, even of those who hang themselves.”

Pascal

Note: (Some of the following has been taken from Pat Morley’s “Success That Matters” seminar)

A man’s greatest need is for significance:

Most men have a difficult time finding what they need because of a preoccupation with pursuing what they want. Much of this stems from a dysfunctional notion of success. Failure can also mean to succeed at something that doesn’t really matter.

The pathway to true significance lies in discovering God’s purpose for our life.

Our Four Universal Purposes: (The first two are task oriented and the second two are relationship oriented)

1. To _____ the kingdom: The _____ Commission
(Matt. 28:18-20)

2. To tend the _____: The _____ Commission
(Gen. 1:28)

3. To love the King’s _____: The _____ Commandment
(John 13:34)

4. To love the _____: The _____ Commandment
(Matt. 22:37)

Life Implication:

How we each answer the questions, “Who am I? And “What is the purpose of my life?” determines how we pursue significance. We must determine Whose we are and Who is the purpose of our life in order to gain the proper perspective on our purpose.

John 15:5 I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing...

Session Outline and Discussion Question

“Why Am I Here?” (Part One)

Vince D’Acchioli -- Session 18

Session Outline:

“All men seek happiness. This is without exception. This is the motive of every action of every man, even of those who hang themselves.”

Pascal

Note: (Some of the following has been taken from Pat Morley’s “Success That Matters” seminar)

A man’s greatest need is for significance:

Most men have a difficult time finding what they need because of a preoccupation with pursuing what they want. Much of this stems from a dysfunctional notion of success. Failure can also mean to succeed at something that doesn’t really matter.

The pathway to true significance lies in discovering God’s purpose for our life.

Our Four Universal Purposes: (The first two are task oriented and the second two are relationship oriented)

1. To _____ the kingdom: The _____ Commission
(Matt. 28:18-20)

2. To tend the _____: The _____ Commission
(Gen. 1:28)

3. To love the King’s _____: The _____ Commandment
(John 13:34)

4. To love the _____: The _____ Commandment
(Matt. 22:37)

Life Implication:

How we each answer the questions, “Who am I? and “What is the purpose of my life?” determines how we pursue significance. We must determine Whose we are and Who is the purpose of our life in order to gain the proper perspective on our purpose.

John 15:5 I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing...

