

Session Outline and Discussion Question

“Why Am I Here?” (Part Two)

Vince D’Acchioli -- Session 19

Session Outline:

Eph. 1:18 I pray also that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which he has called you, the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints...

In order to discover God’s purpose for your life you must do four things:

1. Pray
2. Exercise your natural gifts
3. Watch for His signs
4. Be patient (Hab. 2:3)

George Mueller, one of the most remarkable men of faith in the last two centuries had a unique six-step plan to determine God’s will:

(1) I seek at the beginning to get my heart into such a state that it has no will of its own in regard to a given matter. (2) Having done this, I do not leave the result to feeling or simple impression. If I do so, I make myself liable to great delusions. (3) I seek the will of the Spirit through, or in connection with, the Word of God. (4) Next, I take into account providential circumstances. These often plainly indicate God’s will in connection with His will and Spirit. (5) I ask God in prayer to reveal His will to me aright. (6) Thus, through prayer to God, the study of the Word, and reflection, I come to a deliberate judgment according to the best of my ability and knowledge.

Lining up the four factors:

1. Are you _____ it in the _____?
2. Are you _____ it by His _____?
3. Is it being _____ through wise, _____ counsel?
4. Is it _____ with current _____?

Life Implication:

Our God is not a God of disorder--He is a God of order. When it is Him who is guiding us we can be assured that we are heading in the right direction. We must be sure to prayerfully ask His guidance and then seek to line up the four factors before we make a move.

Phil. 1:6 Being confident of this, that He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.
