

Session Outline and Discussion Question

“A Man And His Family”

Vince D’Acchioli -- Session 24

Session Outline: (Some excerpts from Pat Morley’s STM Seminar)

Eph. 5:25 “Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her.”

The above verse teaches us that we are to love our wives, and by extension our children, as Christ loved the church. How did our Lord love the church? He literally died for her.

In the Old Testament “Christ” is synonymous with “Messiah”, or “Anointed One”. There are three offices associated with anointing and Jesus fulfilled all of them. As leaders of our family we are expected to live out what these offices suggest with our loved ones.

Three offices men must fill:

(Use the life application area to record your attitude and action items for each)

1. The family _____
2. The family _____
3. The family _____, which means to _____,
_____ and _____

“The great secret of contentment is not getting what you want but wanting what you get.”

Life Implication:

The biggest hindrance to men discovering and living out their roles as head of their home comes from dysfunctional notions of success. We must resist buying into three destructive myths:

1. Success means a dynamic career
2. I’m doing this for my family
3. Money will solve all of my problems

“No amount of success at work can compensate for failure at home.”

Ecc. 5:10-12 “Whoever loves money never has money enough; whoever loves wealth is never satisfied with his income. This too is meaningless. As goods increase, so do those who consume them. And what benefit are they to the owner except to feast his eyes on them? The sleep of a laborer is sweet, whether he eats little or much, but the abundance of a rich man permits him no sleep.”

Session Outline and Discussion Question

“A Man And His Family”

Vince D’Acchioli -- Session 24

Session Outline: (Some excerpts from Pat Morley’s STM Seminar)

Eph. 5:25 “Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her.”

The above verse teaches us that we are to love our wives, and by extension our children, as Christ loved the church. How did our Lord love the church? He literally died for her.

In the Old Testament “Christ” is synonymous with “Messiah”, or “Anointed One”. There are three offices associated with anointing and Jesus fulfilled all of them. As leaders of our family we are expected to live out what these offices suggest with our loved ones.

Three offices men must fill:

(Use the life application area to record your attitude and action items for each)

1. The family _____
2. The family _____
3. The family _____, which means to _____,
_____ and _____

“The great secret of contentment is not getting what you want but wanting what you get.”

Life Implication:

The biggest hindrance to men discovering and living out their roles as head of their home comes from dysfunctional notions of success. We must resist buying into three destructive myths:

1. Success means a dynamic career
2. I’m doing this for my family
3. Money will solve all of my problems

“No amount of success at work can compensate for failure at home.”

Ecc. 5:10-12 “Whoever loves money never has money enough; whoever loves wealth is never satisfied with his income. This too is meaningless. As goods increase, so do those who consume them. And what benefit are they to the owner except to feast his eyes on them? The sleep of a laborer is sweet, whether he eats little or much, but the abundance of a rich man permits him no sleep.”

